

Modern love stories

In the first weeks of school lockdown in March 2020, we dealt with the most famous love story of all times: Romeo and Juliet.

Romeo and Juliet was written over 400 years ago by the British author William Shakespeare. It is a story full of love, passion, pain and intrigue which is still loved today.

This story inspired us to write our own modern love stories. Here are some examples for you to read. We hope you like them and enjoy reading our stories!
