

A modern love story

by Luis D. (8c)

My name is Adam, I am 15 years old and I want to tell you the story of Susan and me.

The first day I met her was a very normal day at our high school in Kent, England. I was holding a presentation about love in our cafeteria. It was for a competition. The one who holds the best presentation wins the competition. After my presentation Susan came to me and said that it was the best presentation on this day, because I looked so professional and she said that you could see that I love what I do. I was so confused, speechless and I never thought that I would love this girl one day.

The second time I met Susan was also in the cafeteria. I sat there alone because all my best friends were ill. Susan was sitting next to me and looked at me. At this moment I fell in love. She was so beautiful! We started talking. We talked about the weather, about her hobbies, about love and friendship and about school. Susan said that she had a horse and that she loved horse riding. Also, she said that she loved school and her favorite teacher was Mr. Charles. I also thought that this teacher was really good. I was happy that we thought the same. She also told me that her favorite food was pasta with tomato sauce. That was also my favorite dish. At the end of the break Susan wanted to know if we could hold a presentation together: All students of year nine had to hold a presentation. The teams could be mixed and you could choose your own topic. I said yes sure and after that we spent a lot of time together to prepare the presentation.

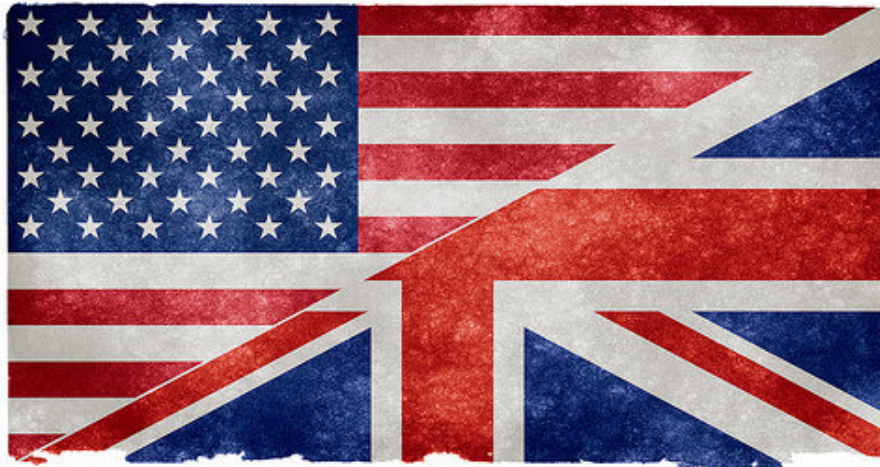

First, we went to Susan's home to prepare the presentation. Susan's parents were so nice. We went in the park and on a playground. It was so funny. With Susan I was the happiest boy in the world. Also, we went shopping. We had so much fun and almost forgot to work on the presentation. The second time was at my home and I cooked pasta with tomato sauce for Susan and she was very happy. Afterwards we went outside with my dog and we played a lot of games like Monopoly. Also, we watched Netflix and movies and worked together on our presentation.

After that I was so happy and could not stop smiling all day. Susan was so cute and I could not stop thinking of her. She was the best girl in the whole world. Two weeks later was the day of our presentation. We were a super team and everything worked great. We got an A+. After that Susan came to me, gave me a kiss and said that she loved me. I was the happiest boy in the world. After our presentation we had wonderful three weeks at our school. We were doing a lot of things together. It was the best time of my life.

Three days later Susan came to me and said that I was the best boy in the world and that she loved me but that it would not work. I was very surprised and asked her why. She said that she only came to England for one year as an exchange student. She usually lived in the USA. I was so shocked. One day later Susan flew back to the US and I was extremely sad because she did not even say good bye or anything else. After three months I got a letter from Susan. In this letter Susan told me that she would come back to England. I could not believe it! I was very excited and could not think of anything else. I could not wait to see her again and I was very nervous. Maybe she did not love me anymore? The day I saw her again was the best day of my life. I did not have to be nervous because Susan had also missed me a lot and still loved me. Her parents even bought a house near my home. Now everything is perfect and we see each other every day and enjoy the time together.

The End
